Flex Medical Insurance Plan for Employees & Family

Organization: ABC Technologies Pvt. Ltd. Policy Name: Flex Medical Insurance Plan
Policy Year: 01 July 2026 to 30 June 2027 Insurance Provider: Sample Health
Insurance Company Ltd. Policy Type: Group Medical Insurance Policy

Introduction

In today's evolving healthcare environment, employees and their families have different medical needs. A standard insurance plan may not address every individual's requirements. To provide greater flexibility and choice, ABC Technologies Pvt. Ltd. has introduced the Flex Medical Insurance Plan.

The Flex Plan allows employees to customize their healthcare coverage based on their personal requirements, family structure, and wellness priorities.

The plan consists of:

1. Core Benefits (Mandatory Coverage)
2. Voluntary Benefits (Optional Add-on Coverage)

Policy Coverage Period

Policy Start Date: 01 July 2026

Policy End Date: 30 June 2027

All eligible employees and enrolled dependents will be covered during the policy period, subject to the terms and conditions of the insurance policy.

Eligibility Criteria

The policy covers:

Employees

- Full-time employees of the organization
- Eligible employees as per company policy guidelines

Eligible Dependents

Employees may include:

- Spouse / Partner
- Children
- Parents

- Parents-in-law

Dependent eligibility will be subject to company and insurer guidelines.

Structure of Flex Insurance Plan

The Flex Plan includes two sections:

A. Core Benefits

Core Benefits are mandatory insurance selections provided to employees.

Core benefits include:

- Employee coverage
- Dependent selection
- Base sum insured options

Employees must select one core option during the enrollment period.

Important Conditions:

- Core benefit selection cannot be reduced for the next two policy years after selection.
- Employees must complete enrollment within the defined enrollment timeline.
